Description: Always the seducer. Its lyrical call is full of warm summer strawberries touched by black pepper, wild currants, and blackberries with an additional weaving trace of warm raspberry cobbler. The bright acidity keeps this complex wine focused and the individual elements defined. A firm resolved and yet supple tannin structure is the perfect frame for this curvaceous wine. Always drawing you in, this Clone 214 will hide in plain sight. It is alluring but at times can be a challenge to fathom. Still, the wine will happily give you all the clues necessary for full appreciation. You have no choice but to follow.
